WHAT TO EXPECT

Before your session we will get together, in person, to confirm a date and outline what your expectations are for the session. This way I can customize your session for you.

At the session, you can expect to relax, have fun and enjoy yourself while I coach you through casual and fun poses that look and feel natural.

About 3-4 weeks after your session, we will get together and review images and I'll walk you through the ordering process.

Once your order(s) have been placed, you will receive your beautiful, ready to hang custom wall art. You will receive digital files, to share on social media, of each image that you purchase.

HELLO... AND THANK YOU.

Remember sitting down and taking out photo albums?

Thumbing through history and even trying to remember faces of family gatherings? I look at my own photo albums and see myself having fun, sunny summer days with totally un-protective headgear by today's standards. I love looking through those photos.

You can never have enough photos of you (or your horse).

I look forward to working with you to create new memories and timeless images. Family portraiture is an investment, and I work hard to capture your equine family in a natural, artistic way to create lasting images that you will remember as you look back on this time in your life.

FREQUENTLY ASKED QUESTIONS:

How long will my session last?

Usually photo sessions last about an hour.

Can I change my outfit?

Yes of course you can but you don't have to. We will have plenty of options with your original outfit!

How many images will you take?

I will take hundreds of images. I'll narrow it down to the very best and analyze how they look together. Approximately 3 weeks after your session, we'll sit together and review the photos and I will help you order.

Will I have to sign a model release?

Yes you will sign a model release. A model release is used by photographer to get permission from models to use their photos for commercial use or marketing materials.

Can I get digital files?

Yes. You will receive digital files of everything you purchase for sharing on social media..
